

Registration for Courses

Registration of new students takes place shortly after acceptance and concludes during the week prior to instruction. Early registration is conducted for currently enrolled students in the preceding semester. Late registration is only permitted during the first week of instruction. A late registration fee is charged. Students should be aware that registration is not complete until all fees and tuition have been paid.