

CRJS 313 : Organized and White Collar Crime

A study of organized and white-collar crime strategies, including standard techniques used to combat them.

Credits 3

CIP Code

45.0601

Prerequisites

(LIBR 150 may be taken concurrently).

Prerequisite Courses

CRJS 201

LIBR 150

Course Outcomes

After successfully completing the course, the learner will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the types of white collar crime, the historical development of the term, current status and perspectives, critical issues and limitations.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the theoretical and methodological issues involved in the current concern with white collar crime: the definitions, meanings, methods of reporting, assessing its costs, etc.
- Develop a critical understanding and analysis of the patterns of corporate, political and other white collar and computer crimes; in our societal context.
- Develop a limited understanding of the social control mechanisms and societal responses to the different; types of non-traditional crime.
- Knowledge of Field: Student understands theories of white collar crime and corporate criminal liability; understands issues presented in the investigation, prosecution and sentencing of white collar offenders; and understands common forms of white collar crimes.