

Program Admission Requirements

To gain admission to the Program, an applicant must first complete the University's Application for Admission form, along with the required $15.00 application fee. Payments for admissions must be made in US dollars by check, money order, or credit card. Applicants must verify high school graduation with a diploma, General education Program, or equivalency.