

Academic Standing and Progress

Academic Good Standing: An undergraduate student in good academic standing is a student who has not received an academic warning nor has been dismissed for academic reasons and has earned a total number of grade points that will average to within four grade points of 2.0000.

Satisfactory Academic Progress: Undergraduate students are considered as making satisfactory academic progress if they have not been academically dismissed or are not on academic warning. Undergraduate students who are enrolled full time are considered as making satisfactory academic progress if they are not on academic warning and complete at least a minimum number of semester hours credit, permitting them to graduate in ten semesters if working toward a baccalaureate degree and five semesters if working toward an associate degree.
