

Program Approval

A student must obtain an Academic Navigator's approval for their selected courses before registration. A student who had officially declared a major must obtain program approval from their designated program advisors. Other students obtain approval from an assigned Academic Navigator through the Student Success Center.